Principal Points by Mike Callahan

On Thursday, May 8, Kenneth Hall PTA and staff are hosting "Celebrate Kenneth Hall" night, from 5:30 -7:30 pm at the school located at 8089 Able Street NE, Spring Lake Park. The primary audience is the school's present families as there will be a family-friendly art fair, book fair, and ice cream social. All are welcome to attend, however, as the media center will host an exhibit that will be of interest to many.

The May 8 event (stop by any time between 5:30 and 7:30, there is no formal program) will feature a mini-museum of information and artifacts from throughout the history of Kenneth Hall Elementary. This will include photographs, fun facts, and stories, as well as scrapbooks, yearbooks, and shirts from throughout the years. In addition, a slide show will honor this year's students, and a video will feature recollections from some former students.

If you can't make it to the mini-museum on the evening of May 8, history buffs can visit the exhibit in the media center during the school day on Thursday, May 8, or in the school's entryway during school hours from May 9-16.

Will You Be Moving This Summer?

If you will be moving over the summer please notify our office staff. This helps us prepare for the upcoming school year when making class placements.

Art Fair

A Celebration of the art work made by Kenneth Hall kids!

Come one, come all, to see all the cool art that kids have been making this year! I have been saving 4 - 6 examples from each one of our 2- Dimensional projects to display the variety of art we have made so far.

EACH child will have something featured!

So, while you're here for the book fair, Kenneth Hall history, and ice cream social, make sure you look up at the walls to see the fabulous work on display. J

Where: Kenneth Hall Hallway

When: 5:30 - 7:30

See you there!
